

4th World Crossbow Shooting Association World Bench/Prone Crossbow Championships – by POST

Timing: January to September 2018

WCSA member federations and clubs are invited to participate in the 3rd World Bench/Prone/Kneeling Championships by post.

Conditions of Entry:

1 x BPR600/70 Round comprising 60 competition bolts at 70m on full-sized World Archery/FITA licensed 40 cm multi-coloured target face for Target and Sport crossbows and 1 x BPR600/50 comprising 60 competition shots at 50 m on a full-sized World Archery/FITA licenced 40 cm multi-coloured target face for Medieval crossbows (kneeling).

There will be both Individual and Teams competition for Target, Standard and Freestyle Sport and Medieval crossbows. Each Federation may enter up to four (4) MIXED teams. Each team will comprise three (3) shooters with all shooters in a team using the same type of equipment regardless of age or sex.

Rounds should preferably be shot in conjunction with a National, Regional or major championship shot under WCSA rules. All Tournaments must be registered as WCSA EVENTS prior to competition starting and be listed on the WCSA shooting calendar.

Entry is open to all WCSA affiliated federations and clubs covering both the Target, Standard and Sport, and Medieval crossbow divisions. In the individual competition there shall be no distinction for age or sex.

Please use the official score sheets as attached. Score sheets must be signed, witnessed and certified by both the Director of Shooting and federation or club official. Scores may be shot in any registered event.
